SUMMARY

Aspiring frontend developer with a specialization in React development. A highly passionate learner and be currently on 4+ projects. With 3+ years of experience as a digital marketer, I'm interested in user experience, promoting, and monetizing web services. My professional background enables me to develop the product from a business standpoint as well and can differentiate me from the other developers. It also enhances collaboration with the marketing & business teams and eventually leads to optimal frontend applications.
